

UDDER CARE

UDDER CARE

The udder requires constant care to keep healthy. There are a variety of ointments available to keep the udder soft so that it will not chap or crack. Then there are the disinfectants in ointment and liquid form for teats and udder. Special ointments and creams are available to treat infections as well.

Milk fever is also a common problem. Injectable solutions are available to manage this condition.